

Indianapolis Common Read 2026

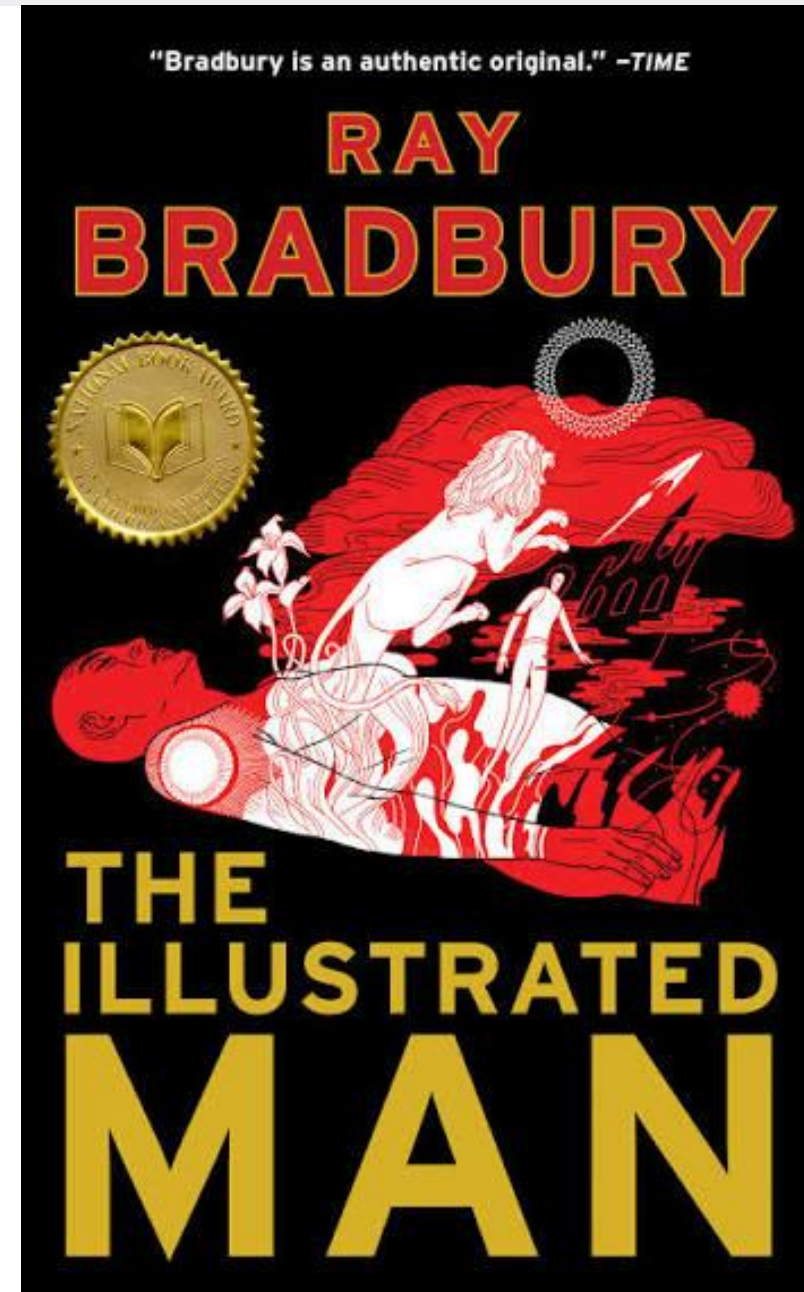

The Illustrated Man by Ray Bradbury

A city-wide reading experience

IU Indianapolis and community partners are inviting Indianapolis residents to participate in a shared reading experience that encourages dialogue, reflection, and connection across neighborhoods, schools, workplaces, libraries, and community organizations.

Readers will explore timely themes including:

Technology • Imagination • Community
Family • Hope • Our vision for the future

Bringing Indianapolis Together Through Reading

Connecting our community through shared reading and conversation

PARTICIPATE

- Classroom discussions
- Student & community book clubs
- Library programs
- Family reading activities
- Community conversations

RESOURCES

- Free copies through public libraries
- Reading guides for middle & high school students

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

- November 10, 2026
- Indiana Historical Society
- Maurice Broaddus (Moderator)
- Daniel Kraus
- Dr. Abigail Fraeman

Participation can be adapted to fit the needs and capacity of any organization or school.